Promotion Announcement of Pamela Pine to Chief Operating Officer (“COO”) of Loudoun Insurance Group, LLC (“LIG”) in Leesburg Virginia

---

We are very pleased to announce the promotion of Pamela Pine to COO. Pamela is a founding member of LIG and over the last 5 years has focused her practice in the area of commercial and personal lines, property & casualty risk management and insurance services.

John Wolff, the agency’s CEO & President states “the quality, commitment, and dedication to customer service and satisfaction is very important for the firms’ long term success, Pam exemplifies these wonderful traits and truly cares about her clients, her work and her co workers.” He further states “we look forward to Pam’s ability to continue to achieve the success and focus in her new role as Chief Operating Officer.”

Loudoun Insurance Group, LLC was founded in 2007 by local businessmen John H. Wolff, Robert M. Gordon and Pamela with the idea of creating a positive environment, open architecture insurance carrier setting and full service insurance agency to serve the community with its business and personal risk management and insurance needs.

Congratulations, Pamela!
